Dashing Dogs Show

Didn't I do well !!!!!

I won out of Grade 3 then straight away went on to win out of Grade 4. I also won a 2nd and 3rd place. Yes, all this at one show!!!! Well done to Charlie Wyatt and JJ on such a brilliant achievement.

English Shetland Sheepdog Club Show (Obedience) October 23rd 2010

Held at The Kennel Club Building, Royal Showground's, Kenilworth.

I have been a member of the ESSC for a few years now and last year I decided to enter the obedience competition with Sunny. He was very lacking in confidence and didn't do very well.

However during the year he has been doing heelwork to Music in which he has won novice heelwork to music and freestyle classes and his confidence has grown enormously.

This year we entered the Novice obedience class and I'm thrilled to say he WON! He really enjoyed his time in the ring.

Kennel Club Working Trials Championships Qualifiers October 2010.

We have only a few members competing in the Working Trials events. However two of our members have won Championship Tracker Dog Stakes to qualify to compete in the annual Kennel Club Working Trials Championships, which are being held in Surrey during October.

They are - Ann Clarke with her Labrador Styperson Quincey won her first ticket at Tewkesbury ch working trials, which qualified her for the KC championships. Quincey who reportedly a bit of a handful with his exuberant attitude to working: - and;

Ann Thorpe with her border collie wctch Glenalpine Izzie won her ticket at Icen DTC (Colchester) ch working trials in October last year qualifying them for this years KC Championship.

Ann reportedly intends to retire Izzie at this years KC Championships as she is 9 years old, a good age for a working trials dog.

We wish them the best of luck in the Championships.

Alpha Challenge Agility Final at Malvern on September 26th

Keith Britton with Thornbury Nell won the final of the Alpha Challenge at the Malvern Showground judged by Andy Brown - there were five competitors who went round clear. Kieth was drawn first and set a time of 35.52 which proved to be unbeatable.

This follows Keith's excellent results at the KC International.

The Alpha Agility Challenge is designed for large dogs Grade 1 to 3 and has 9 qualifying rounds with top five in each round going forward to the final, Kieth qualified at Beacon ADTC, West Midlands in May 2010.

Rugby Obedience Show 2nd May 2010

A great show for the club and a couple of our members did rather well !!

Jan Morse: - Committee Member & Trainer

My day to remember, for all the right reasons.

I was drawn 23rd in Champion C Bitch and wandered over to the ring with time to spare, to find the 19th dog working. Dog 20 had withdrawn, dog 21 had not booked in and dog 22 was doing stays so I was next to work. I was really pleased with Keya, she did every exercise (for a change). When I came out of the ring I looked at her marks – she was on 6-1/2 and had gone into the lead with the next dog on 7

I was so excited I had to tell everyone. I didn't care that she could end up lower in the placings; the feeling whilst she held that place was wonderful. I could see myself in the big ring at Crufts, strutting my stuff with my little darling next to me.

My results for the day.

Champ C Bitch 3rd Keya Open C Bitch 1st Keya

Novice Dog 2nd Crunchie And 3 prizes in the raffle as WELL!

This was my 'Once in a lifetime day and I lived my dream' for a time.

Thelwyn Bateman.

Thelwyn and her Border Collie Fizz won the Dog Championship Obedience Class under judge Bev Hughes and hence qualified for the finals at Crufts 2011.

Thelwyn also won the Class B Bitch with Tilly. A great day for 2 of our members and we all congratulate them on their success at the show
